The Kentucky Editors Have an Interesting Meeting at Owensboro

And a Delightful Outing to The Great Northern Lakes and the Border Land of the British Empire.

The meeting of the Kentucky Press Association, at Owensboro, July 28 and 29, will be long remembered by the Kentucky pressmen. The editor of this paper, accompanied by his wife, left Hartford at noon, August 1, over the Illinois Central for Louisville. At the 5th Avenue Hotel, along with a score of other Kentucky editors and their wives were the guests, Monday night, of the 5th Avenue Hotel. The efforts of the managers of Louisville's most popular hotel to entertain the press people were heartily appreciated. There is no other hotel at Kentucky's metropolis where the guests are made to feel so much at home as at the 5th Avenue. The visitor there is made to feel more the guest of a friend than of a house of public entertainment.

THE TEXAS ROAD.

Tuesday morning, about fifty Kentucky editors and their wives and sweethearts were taken charge of by Mr. Geo. I. Garrett, traveling passenger agent of the Louisville, Henderson and St. Louis railroad, who placed a special train at the disposal of the editors for the trip to Owensboro. No other railroad in Western Kentucky can offer its patrons a hundred mile ride through such delightful and fascinating natural scenery as can the L. & St. L. from Louisville to Owensboro. The natural scenery along this line from West Point to Cloverport cannot be surpassed anywhere in Kentucky. On the left an almost perpendicular cliff from one hundred to three hundred feet in height, broken here and there by a deep, shadowy canyon, charm and please the traveler, while on the right, almost at the car window, glides the waters of the broad and beautiful Ohio. Every visitor to the South should take this trip for its scenic beauty. We arrived at Owensboro at 11:40 and went to the Ruff House, which was headquarters for the K. P. A. during its stay in that city.

In the afternoon a meeting was held in the Court House at which Mayor Yewell in a pleasing address of welcome turned over the city of Owensboro to the press gang during their two days' meeting there. Mr. R. W. Brown, of the Louisville Times, replied to the address of welcome, accepting for the press people, everything Mayor Yewell had tendered, including the best brands of Davies county mint juleps.

Capt. W. T. Hill, on the part of the Owensboro folks, publicly tendered the headquarters of that popular organization for the use and benefit of the editors. No special explanation of the sort of entertainment to be expected there, was made, but the editors rushed as one man to the Ruff House just like they knew what to expect, and they got it.

At night the newspaper people, along with about five thousand newspaper readers went out to the Chattanooga grounds where Col. W. C. P. Breckinridge delivered an address on the "Scope of the Press." Col. Breckinridge made no effort at oratory, for which he is famous, but made a very practical talk to newspaper men. He said that character was essential to a newspaper as to an individual, and that no newspaper could permanently succeed that does not maintain a reputation for veracity and cleanliness. Every newspaper man present, who loves his art must feel a large debt of gratitude due Col. Breckinridge for his sensible and practical advice.

After Col. Breckinridge's speech came the banquet in a large tent especially spread for the occasion. The tables were tastefully decorated with flowers and colors, and more than two hundred people feasted on the bounty of Owensboro's generous citizens. The banquet was prepared by Miss Ophelia Hagan and the service was by the young ladies of Owensboro. Mr. R. W. Slack was toastmaster and Owensboro's citizens have cause to be proud of their selection.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

Wednesday morning a business session was held at the Court House at which officers for the year were elected as follows: Thos. Watkins, Courier-Journal, President; Paul Moore, Lexington Bee, Vice President; R. E. Morningstar, Secretary.

THE BUSINESS SESSION.

The business session adjourned at noon and everybody went out to Hickman Park to enjoy the Burgo, which had been generously prepared for us by the citizens of Owensboro. The first most noticeable and most interesting feature of the entertainment at the park was the serving of cooling, soothing, tempting mint juleps. Bill Cushman presided over this very important department of the entertainment, and he did it wisely and well. Mr. Cushman is master of the art of making life pleasant for everybody and past master of the art of making mint juleps.

DESERT LOS ALAMOS.

Many Inhabitants Quit the Town, Fearing Destruction by Earthquake.

Benjamin Ide Wheeler Urges Citizens to Leave--More Shocks are Felt To-Day.

Los Alamos, Cal., Aug. 4.—The people of this city and vicinity are terror-stricken and are fleeing from their homes to places of safety on account of the increasing severity of the earthquakes that have visited this section since the night of the 27th inst., since which time it is estimated seventy-five distinct shocks have been felt. The most severe shock occurred at 1:20 o'clock this morning, when the earth seemed to lurch from south to north and then twisted back again, destroying brick walls and piling everything indoors into unrecognizable heaps, toppling over heavy iron safes and destroying thousands of dollars' worth of goods.

The people are panic-stricken and many are leaving town by train and in all available vehicles. Three distinct shocks were recorded between 7 and 7:30 o'clock this morning, and the latter disturbances add much to the terror of the inhabitants.

President Benjamin Ide Wheeler of the University of California was communicated with by telephone and advised the people to quit the town as soon as possible. Scientists at the university were away on vacation, but President Wheeler advised that the people be urged to flee at a moment's notice and that the doors of residences and places of business be left open for escape to the streets without delay in event of further disturbances.

The advice of President Wheeler was communicated to the people at once and was immediately acted upon.

It is impossible to estimate the financial loss at this time with any degree of accuracy, but it is believed that the disturbances of the last three or four days have damaged at least $50,000 worth of property.

Reports from other sections of the valley probably will increase this amount by many thousands.

No loss of life is yet reported. Ever brick building in the town was destroyed or badly wrecked. In nearly every house windows were broken. The Presbyterian church, a large and handsome brick structure, was razed, and a similar fate befell the general store of W. S. Wickenbush, also a brick building.

The shock seemed to have a spiral motion. Goods were thrown from shelves of stores and heaped in the middle of rooms. Even such heavy articles as desks were thrown about. Not a chimney is left standing in the town. All brick walls are badly damaged, but frame structures generally escaped serious injury. In the drug stores not a bottle escaped, and saloons were flooded with liquor from broken bottles.

The whole town was aroused, and people fled from their homes to the streets in panic. There have been several light shocks since July 27, when the first heavy shock occurred, but that of this morning exceeded anything yet experienced. It lasted thirty seconds and threw people from their beds.

The Western Union Oil Company is the heaviest loser, two of its immense storage tanks being demolished, releasing thousands of gallons of oil.

Shortly before 9 o'clock two more distinct shocks were felt. Word comes from the towns of Lompoc and Santa Maria, each distant about twenty miles from Los Alamos, that the disturbances of last night were felt but slightly in the vicinity of those towns, showing that this place was the center of disturbance.

In some places the walls caved in and merchandise was ruined. A large sale in Wickenden's shoe store was overturned and went crashing through the door. The home of Attorney Alexander Lealle is in bad shape. The plastering was all knocked off and the safe, papers, dishes, books and furniture were piled in the center of the room in a broken and confused mass.

Buildings rocked violently and people rushed from their homes in their night clothes.

The first shock lasted several seconds, and a number of buildings that were damaged by Sunday night's shock are on the verge of collapse. People remained on the streets last night, fearing to return to their houses, and to-day still refused to enter them.

The seismic disturbances at Los Alamos have continued during the morning, though none so severe as that of 1:20. A severe shock was felt at 10 o'clock.

The oil wells at Careager are believed to be uninjured.

Los Alamos is a town of about 600 inhabitants in Santa Barbara county.

A Cure for Cholera Infantum.

"Last May," says Mrs. Curtis Baker, of Bookwalter, Ohio, "an infant child, or our neighbor's was suffering from cholera infantum. The doctor had given up all hopes of recovery. I took a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to the house, telling them I felt sure it would do good if used according to directions was in two days' time the child had fully recovered, and is now (nearly a year since) a vigorous, healthy girl. I have recommended this Remedy frequently and have never known it to fail in any single instance. For sale by all druggists."

A Natural Result.

A story is told of a young man who went to church and suddenly fell in love with a strange young lady sitting in a pew joining his. He was at a loss what to say or how to say it. Suddenly a happy thought struck him and taking his Bible he politely handed it to his fair neighbor with the following verse marked (second epistle of St. John, 2nd chap., verse 1): "And now I beseech the lady, not as tho' I wrote a new commandment unto thee, but that which we had from the beginning that we love one another."

He returned the book pointing to the thirteenth verse of the third epistle of St. John. "Having many things to write unto you I would not with paper and ink, but I trust to come unto thee and speak face to face."

ITEMS WORTHY OF PERUSAL.

The quiet girl never wears a high collar on the streets. You do not see her flaunting in brilliant checks when they happen to be in style. When high hats are "up," she does not pile hers so high that it sweeps the cobwebs from the sky, says the Albany Times-Union. She does not wear the longest train to her feet gown nor the greatest number of hangings when bangles reign.

But because she does not chatter and giggle and make herself conspicuous at meetings, does not announce her convictions on all occasions on all subjects and profess her admiration at every hand's turn, it must not be supposed that she has no ideas or convictions or enthusiasms. She is quiet because she has no power to make herself heard, to change her condition or because she is maturing that power.

In the meantime, it is the quiet girl who marries first, who makes the best match, who fills the niches which her more brilliant sisters leave vacant, who manages the servants, runs the sewing machine, remembers the birthdays, listens to the reminiscences of the old and often keeps the wolf from the door.

There was once a woman who was the despair of all the other women of her acquaintance—her house was pretty and always in perfect order; she kept it on a very small income and kept it beautifully; she made all her own clothes and those of her child; she trimmed hats for herself and all her sisters; she did fancy work; she painted chairs, thereby saving sometimes as much as 75c; she taught a class in a mission sewing school; she took lessons in cooking; she belonged to several charitable organizations; and the end of that woman was nervous prostration and a sanitarium. Amid her many occupations she had somehow lost sight of the fact that a certain amount of amusement is necessary for the human mind. She had never "had time" for rest or diversion. And her husband, as he paid the bill for medical services, possibly reflected how much better, and not only better, but cheaper, would prevention have been than cure.

"If I were called upon," said a veteran physician, "to lay down three rules for observance in hot weather, and especially by women, these would be the three: Don't worry, don't hurry, don't eat injudicious food. It is a well known fact that women worry more about things that never happen than they do about those that really supervene. They work themselves into a frenzy of anxiety for fear Mamie and Johnnie will catch the whooping-cough at school, lie awake at nights nervously wondering if gas is escaping somewhere or if the kitchen door is locked, grieve over the jelly that will not jelly and in a thousand ways torment themselves, and such is the effect of mind over matter, wear themselves to a frazzle, a fragile frazzle not calculated to withstand such heat as we are likely to have at any time now. I have found that several of my patients have been preparing in a more or less frantic fashion for their coming trip to the country or watering resorts. By the time their clothes are ready for these trips, they will be more fit for a month in a rest cure than anything else. And all I can say seems to pass off them like water off a duck's back. Hm! My own wife's as bad as any of them."

"I shall never forget my visit to Madrid," said a woman to a reporter of the New York Sun. "I was the only member of our party who knew any Spanish, and I knew but one word, and that one being 'leche' (milk) but by means of gestures we managed to get along until breakfast was served. Then, as luck would have it, the maid brought my coffee without any milk, and, also, as luck would have it, I promptly forgot the one word of Spanish I knew, and which, of all words, was the one word most wanted at that moment. This time neither gesture nor yelling were of any avail, so, at last, in desperation, I seized a piece of paper and a pencil and drew a picture of a cow. Whereupon the maid tripped off and came back with three tickets to a bull fight."

FUGITIVE TRACY

Bobs up and is Reported in Eastern Washington.

Unwounded and Well Armed, He Wants to Hold up a Bank or Rob an Express Car.

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 4.—Henry Tracy, the fugitive desperado, is now in Eastern Washington, unwounded, in good health, armed with four guns and 200 rounds of ammunition, provisioned for five days and equipped with two horses. Crossed the Columbia river at 5 o'clock yesterday morning and is now supposed to be headed towards the Idaho line.

Tracy declared that he wants to hold up a bank or rob an express car. He says that he has promised to give the sum of $5,000 within one year to the parties who helped him escape from the Oregon penitentiary. He is making his way to the "Hole-in-the-Wall" country in Wyoming. When there, he declares, he will be a thief among thieves and thinks he will be safe.

Excursion Rates.

On account of Confederate reunion tickets will be sold at rate of one fare for the round trip. Tickets on sale July 30th and 31st and early morning train August 1st limited for return August 2nd and 3rd.

Lisbon Horse Show and Carnival, Lexington Ky., August 11-16th. On account above mentioned found trip tickets will be on sale from Beaver Dam to Lexington Ky., and return at $5.55 for the round trip. Tickets on sale August 11 to August 16 limited for return August 18th for return.

"That Mrs. Prim's a spiteful old thing," said Miss Gray.

"What has she done now?" asked Miss Fyrt.

"She met me on the boardwalk yesterday and told me I was showing a good deal of my ankle, so of course, I had to stop it."—Philadelphia Press.

Only a Mask.

Many are not being benefited by the summer vacation as they should be. Now, notwithstanding much outdoor life, they are little if any stronger than they were. The fun on their faces is darker and makes them look healthier, but it is only a mask. They are still nervous, easily tired, upset by trifles, and they do not eat nor sleep well. What they need is what tones the nerves, perfects digestion, creates appetite, and makes sleep refreshing, and that is Hood's Sarsaparilla. Pupils and teachers generally will find the chief purpose of the vacation best subserved by this great medicine which, as we know, "builds up the whole system."

Definitions of a Kiss.

A kiss is an inspired and tasteless morsel which becomes delicious and delectable in proportion as it is flavored with love.

The sweetest fruit on the tree of love—often plucked the more abundant it grows.

A thing of use to no one, but much prized by two.

The baby's right, lover's privilege, the parent's benison and the hypocrite's mask.

That which you cannot give without taking and cannot take without giving.

The food by which the flame of love is fed.

The only known "smack" that will calm a storm.

A telegram to the heart, in which the operator uses the "sounding" system.

Nothing divided between two. Not enough for one, just enough for two, too much for three.

The only real agreeable two-faced action under the sun, or the moon either.

The sweetest libel of the world's language.

A woman's most effective argument, whether to cajole the heart of a father, or console the grief of childhood.

The thunderclap of the lips which inevitably follows the lightning glance of the eye.

A report at headquarters.

Everybody's acting edition of "Romeo and Juliet."

What the child receives free, what the young man steals, and what the old man buys.

HISTORIC BARDSTOWN.

It Has Furnished Many Governors of States and Other Noted Men.

Bardstown's old public square probably has a more interesting history than any other place of the kind in Kentucky. This town was first settled about 1776, and in planting the village, its projectors were precise, and the streets, with the exception of one, Broadway, are exactly the same width. Every square is identical with the other and is provided with wide alleys running east and west, north and south. The public square is in the center of the town. Previous to 1891, an old stone courthouse, two stories in height, surmounted with an old fashioned cupola, stood in the center of the square. This old building was erected at the beginning of the last century by Thomas Metcalf, known in those days as "Old Stone Hammer," and who was afterwards Governor of Kentucky. It cost about $10,000 and in the early years of the Commonwealth, was regarded as the finest structure of the kind in the west. In the days when Bardstown earned the title of the "Athens of the West," the walls of the old judicial building resounded with the eloquence of such famous men as Henry Clay, James Buchanan, John Hay, Humphrey Marshall, Felix Grundy, James K. Polk, Gideon Edwards, once Governor of Illinois; John Pope, afterwards Governor of Arkansas; William Duval, later Governor of Florida; Charles A. Wickliffe, at one time Governor of Kentucky; Robert C. Wickliffe, who served as Governor of Louisiana; old Ben Hardin, Ben Chapman and many others of national renown.

Numerous murder trials took place within the courthouse. Here James Watson was brought to trial for one of the most atrocious double murders that was ever perpetrated within the borders of the state. Old Ben Hardin was the murderer's lawyer, and his speech in behalf of his client is said by many to have been the strongest effort of his life. The trial attracted wide attention and culminated in the hanging of the defendant, Watson. A few years later Jake, Cy and Ben, three negro slaves, were tried in the old courthouse, convicted and sentenced to be hanged for the murder of their mate, James G. Maxwell, a wealthy citizen of near Bloomfield. On the corner of the square is the old house where Gov. Wm. Duval, then a boyish hunter first met the girl who afterwards became his wife, an account of which is delightfully given in Washington Irving's "Sketch Book". On another corner stands the old stone tavern, the oldest stone edifice in Central Kentucky. The old hotel, situated as it was at the junction of two important highways, one leading from the Ohio river at Louisville to Nashville in the south, and the other following the old Wilderness tracks and on to the east through Cumberland Gap sheltered many distinguished men, among them Gen. Lafayette when he toured this country in the 20s.—Bardstown correspondent to Courier-Journal.

Ten cents will buy trial size of Ely's Cream Balm; enough to convince you that it is the greatest of remedies for nasal catarrh or cold in the head. Full size 50 cents. All druggists.

Ely Bros., 65 Warren St. New York 153 Second Street, Albany, N.Y.

Messrs. Ely Bros.—I suffered greatly with catarrh and tried different remedies without effect. After using one bottle of your Cream Balm I found relief and I cannot praise too highly such a remedy. Sept. 27, 1899. Miss Cora Willard.

A passenger train on the Pennsylvania crashed into a wild coal car at Treble, O., and a frightful wreck resulted. Four lives are known to have been lost and other bodies are probably buried in the debris.

Experience has demonstrated just what Ramon's Pink Pills will do. R. L. McDavid, Kelley, La., says: "I suffered from constipation and congestion of the liver for many years, and tried the best doctors in the country without any benefit, and finally a box of Ramon's Treatment and to my surprise was entirely cured. I cheerfully recommend them for all and even more than you claim for them."

ILLINOIS CENTRAL R. R.

OF INTEREST TO Stockholders

Free Transportation to Attend the Special and Annual Meetings at Chicago.

Public notice is hereby given that a special meeting of the stockholders of the Illinois Central Railroad Company will be held at the Company's office in Chicago, Illinois, on Friday, August 15, 1902, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon; also that the regular annual meeting of the stockholders of the Company will be held at its office in Chicago, Illinois, on Wednesday, October 15, 1902, at noon.

To permit persons attending at these meetings there will be issued to each holder of one or more shares of the capital stock of the Illinois Central Railroad Company as registered on the books of the Company at the close of business on Friday, August 1, 1902, and to stockholders of record on Friday, September 13, 1902, a ticket entitling him, or her, to travel free over the Company's lines from the station on the Illinois Central Railroad nearest to his or her registered address to Chicago and return, such ticket to be good for the journey to Chicago only during the four days immediately preceding, and the day of the meeting, and for the return journey from Chicago only on the day of the meeting, and the four days immediately following, when properly counterstamped and stamped during business hours—that is to say, between 9:00 a. m. and 6:00 p. m.—in the office of the Assistant Secretary, Mr. W. G. Brown, in Chicago. Such ticket may be obtained by any holder of stock registered as above, on application, in writing, to the President of the Company in Chicago. Each application must state the full name and address of the stockholder exactly as given in his or her certificate of stock, together with the number and date of each certificate. No more than one person will be entitled free in respect to any one holding of stock as registered in the books of the Company.

A. G. H. STARR, Secretary.

Just within her grasp is safety—but she does not see it; she is looking the wrong way. There's many a woman struggling in a sea of disease who is doing the same thing—looking the wrong way—snatching at medicinal straw when the life buoy is within her reach. Many a woman has testified: "I know I should not live to-day but for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription." This famous medicine establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness.

Weak and sick women, especially those suffering from diseases of long standing, are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and is handled confidentially. Address: Dr. R. W. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Just take pleasure in writing to let you know the great good I received from your Favorite Prescription and your Pleasant Pills. My wife, Mrs. Maudie of Rio, Hart Co., Ky., will write or send you a letter. I will send you one or two vials of the Pills. I think I would have been in my grave had it not been for your medicine. It has been about four months since I took it, and I feel like a new man. I have not had back headache since I took your medicine."

"Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong, sick women well. Accept no substitute for the medicine which works wonders for weak women.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pills cure diseases and sick headaches.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 8.

Republican Ticket.

For Appellate Judge—2nd District,
JUDGES L. D. GUFFY, OF MORGANTOWN.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For Circuit Judge.
We are authorized to announce W. T. OWEN, of Daviess county, as a candidate for Circuit Judge in the Third Judicial District, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

FOX ALLEY went out of Hartford's history at a meeting of the city council a few nights ago. It is Center Street now.

The subscription list is still open for those who want to assist in the building of a railroad from Hartford to Beaver Dam.

MR. DAVID M. DUNCAN, editor of the Meade County Messenger, one of the best country weeklies in the State, is a candidate for Representative of Meade county on the Democrat ticket.
It Meade county must have a Democratic Representative, we hope to see Dave have the job.

HARRY TRACY, the popular Oregon outlaw and all-round mauler, became weary of public receptions and demonstrations on his journey through the West, and on last Wednesday, he injected a lead tablet into his dome of thought, and quietly fell asleep. His defiant, imperious spirit will awake no more to dash it self against the cage of life.

The Kentucky editors, who attended the State Press meeting at Owensboro will not soon forget the hospitality of the citizens of that city. The city officials, the Elks and the street railway people—but it would be unjust to particularize. Every citizen of Owensboro, from the old folks to the school children put forth his best effort to make the Kentucky editor's life pleasant during his stay in the city.

The Breckenridge News, one of the very best weekly newspapers published in Western Kentucky, which has fought the battles of Democracy since 1875 pays the following well deserved tribute to Judge B. L. D.
Guffy:

In taking up the fight for Judge Guffy it is not because he is the Republican nominee, but from the day and sincere conviction that he is the best qualified man for the place. His record as a judge stands at the head of the list and there is no good reason for turning him down for a man whose record is unknown.

The Democrats have challenged Judge Guffy to joint debate with Judge Settle. Of course they knew that candidates for high judicial position nowhere indulge in joint debate, but were the custom general nobody would expect the Chief Justice of the highest court in the State to go out debating with an obscure Circuit Judge. The hissing would be fast and furious if champion Jefferies were to enter the ring with Terry McGovern.

In considering the matter of building a railroad to connect us with the Illinois Central, the convenience for passenger service, important as it is,
should be a secondary consideration.
The freight traffic is the chief advantage to be derived from the road, and not only Hartford freight, for a railroad here would make Hartford a shipping point for a large section of country from which the town would derive very great profit. Give us a railroad and the population of Hartford will double within five years.

MR. THOMAS F. BIRKHEAD, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Circuit Judge, is making a series of speeches in the various voting precincts of Ohio county. We are not up on Democratic politics, but we have an unconverted brother who affiliates with that party, and he informs us that Mr. Birkhead's speeches are helping Judge Owen's cause.
He informs us that most of those who hear Mr. Birkhead are convinced that he does not measure up in ability to the standard fixed by the voters for so important an office.

The great anthracite coal strike in Pennsylvania has taken on a more serious phase. President Mitchell has done all in his power to have the matter settled without riot and bloodshed. But a large per cent. of the striking miners are Hungarians, Poles and other foreigners who know little of our language and have little respect for our laws. They were imported to take the place of the American workmen and by attacking the militia they have done more to alienate public sympathy and injure their cause than all their other

Other acts could have done. They may have grievances, and doubtless do have many, but this does not justify them in taking the law into their own hands. It goes without saying that peaceable means are always best in settling labor troubles.

The Hartford Herald seems to be very much worried about Judge Guf-fy's age and assumes to say that he is seventy-two years old, and asserts that he is on the decline. While it is true that Judge Guffy is not as young as he was fifty years ago, but he is not seventy-two years old, and he is young enough to have rendered more opinions than any of his juniors or seniors upon the bench during his eight years of service on the Appellate bench, and he is old enough to have engrained into these decisions such wisdom that the Bar of the State, irrespective of party, admit the ability of this distinguished jurist.

"The school of Judge Guffy to engage in joint debate with his opponent, Judge Warren Settle, was no more than was expected. It is a characteristic of the Republican faction when called upon to defend the cause of a weak candidate.—Hartford Herald.

The Herald's anxiety for a "joint" debate between the candidates for Judge of the Appellate Court, will no doubt cause the voters of Ohio county who remember that so recently as last year the Herald's candidates possessed, persistently and continuously refused to indulge in joint debate with the Republican candidates. Republican readers will recall the correspondence between the chairman of the Democratic and Republican Committees in which the chairman of the Democratic committee, without excuse or apology, declined to let his candidates meet the Republican candidates on the stump. When the Herald says "it is a characteristic of the Republicans when called upon to defend a weak candidate to decline a joint debate" does it mean to insinuate that its own candidates in Ohio county last year were so weak that they did not let them undertake their own defense? If the Herald really wishes to prove that it represents a party anxious for joint debates, let it reproduce the correspondence between Messrs. Barras and Ringo last fall relative to a matter of this character. If it has not a copy of the correspondence referred to we shall take pleasure in furnishing it from our files.

Catarth Cannot be Cured
with Local Applications, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease.
Catarth is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarth Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarth Cure is not quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for four years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with directly on the mucous surface. The perfect combinations of the two ingredients is what produces much wonderful results in curing Catarth.

There is no other base ball team in the country that is as all like the Nebraska Indian Base Ball Team. In the first place the team is composed of genuine Indians and in the second place they play the finest base ball of any team traveling. Then too, they camp right on the grounds where they play and live in true savage style. The Nebraska Indians will play the Hartford Base Ball team at Hartford on Saturday August 9. No one who enjoys sport or novelty should miss this event.

FORDSVILLE.

After an extended visit to Russellville, and a country home, Brookside, near Adairville, your correspondent is home again and pleased at the an-gustion of the editor of his most creditable paper, THE REPUBLICAN, to continue the correspondence from our town, begun a few months since.

Mr. A. E. Smith, of the Glendene
Bank, was in town Sunday.

Quite a party of young people of our town spent Sunday afternoon at Sulphur Springs.

Messrs. Herbert Beard and Warren
May, of Harbardsburg, were guests of friends here Monday.

Mrs. Jean Duncan, of McHenry, is here in charge of an elocution class for a two weeks course, at the end of which time an entertainment will be

Mr. Peter Martin, who has been connected with the bakery here, for

Eczema, Psoriasis, Salt Rheum, Tetter and Acne

Belong to that class of inflammatory and disfiguring skin eruptions that cause more genuine bodily discomfort and worry than all other known diseases. The impurities or sediments which collect in the system because of poor digestion, inactive kidneys and other organs of elimination are taken up by the blood, saturating the system with acid poisons and fluids that ooze out through the glands and pores of the skin, producing an indescribable itching and burning, and the yellow, watery discharge forms into crusts and sores or little brown and white scabs that drop off, leaving the skin tender and raw. The effect of the poison may cause the skin to crack and bleed, or give it a scaly, fishy appearance; again the eruptions may consist of innumerable blackheads and pimples or hard, red bumps upon the face. Purification of the blood is the only remedy for these vicious skin diseases. Washes and powders can only hide for a time the glaring blemishes. S. S. S. eradicates all poisonous accumulations, antitoxins the Uric and other acids, and restores the blood to its wonted purity, and stimulates and revitalizes the sluggish organs, and the impurities pass off through the natural channels and relieve the skin. S. S. S. is the only guaranteed purely vegetable blood purifier. It contains no Arsenic, Potash or other harmful mineral.

Write us about your case and our physicians will advise without charge.
We have a handsomely illustrated book on skin diseases, which will be sent free to all who wish it. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., Atlanta, Ga.

MT. VERNON.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Abrams attended the ice cream supper Saturday night at R. K. Beana.

R. K. Beana had a very hard chill
Saturday but is at his regular work now.

Rev. and Mrs. B. T. Lanham left
Monday morning for the Owensboro Chautauqua.

Mrs. R. K. Beana and son, Dewey, spent the day with Mrs. John Grant Monday.

Mrs. Chattie Hines, wife of T. Hines, died Monday morning of lung trouble and a complication of other troubles.

Mr. Cort Beana's little baby died
Tuesday morning, was buried at Mt.
Vernon in the afternoon.

In answer to a correspondent to the Herald of July 23, will say that the Mt. Vernon class appreciates very much the compliment passed on them for the alms they gave at the Cannon Children's Day service, but do not like the flattering remarks given to the Cannon Run class, for don't think they deserve it, if the first place, they were not content in taking the center of the house and giving Mt. Vernon the corner, but picked this class out of some 4 or 5 different classes, although they are one of the oldest of the country, while Mt. Vernon is a very young class. Now when you can get the Cannon Run class to slog along let us know and we will try to help them, and as yet they have heard.
Please give praise where it is deserving.

Miss Cora, daughter of George Abram who has been living in Anderson county has come here to make it her future home.

MAKING IT PLAIN.

A wise man or woman is always looking for the store where he gets real value for what he spends. He looks at the quality first, quantity second.
He knows that the spurious use all their powers in imitating the good. He comes where he knows he can get real value for what he spends—where they sell at a narrow margin and do a large volume of business.

Summer Comfort

Consists in a large part in having light-weight, well-made clothing. Buy one of our nice Serge Coats and Vests, a light-weight Pants, a nice up-to-date Straw Hat, a pair of up-to-date-minute Shoes, elegant light-weight fancy Underwear, the new Tan Madras Overshirts, the comfortable new Summer Collar, and one of our elegant Neckties.

An Invitation.

Everybody wishing to be dressed in accord with the season, should come to our store. Our stocks of airy comfortable Waist, Skirt and Dress Goods will certainly surprise you. We can please you in quality and price. Our Slippers, Hosiery, Para-sols, Vests, Fans, Etc., are all built to your liking, and we have stock-reducing prices on them.

Broken lots of goods, odds and ends at a big reduction in price.

Mr. G. C. Magan, who operates a threshing machine in the Northern part of the county informs us that he threshed 1,050 bushels of wheat for Mr. J. B. Mitchell, a progressive farmer, near Sulphur Springs. This was perhaps the largest crop of wheat raised by a single farmer in Ohio county this season.

Mrs. Mira Tusley, wife of Joshua Tusley, Beda, died Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock and was buried at 5 o'clock p. m., at Mt. Hermon. She leaves a husband, eight children and a host of friends and relatives to mourn her loss.

I wish to announce that I have completed my new store house and just received a brand new stock of goods and would be glad for all my old customers and friends as well as all new ones to call and see my stock of merchandise and get my prices before purchasing elsewhere.

Yours for trade,
C. L. ARMENT,
Dundee, Ky.

Dr. J. W. Meador, Trisler, was a distinguished visitor at the office Tuesday. He has twice represented Ohio county in the Legislature. He was a pioneer Republican, being the first man of his political views to carry Ohio county. Although he has been in bad health for the last few years, he still retains a great deal of the "personal magnetism" which made it possible for him to attract to his support men of sundry political inclinations and carry Ohio county when it was overwhelmingly Democratic. As a doctor of medicine he has long stood almost without a peer in the county. May he live long to enjoy the distinction which his public service merits is the wish of THE REPUBLICAN.

Mr. John M. Bishop, his wife and their grandson, Master Lynn Bishop, all of Centerville, Ky., returned last Saturday from Corbin, Whitley county where Mr. Bishop and wife had been visiting their son and daughter-in-law, Capt. Oscar Bishop and wife. They report quite a pleasant visit, and that they are very favorably impressed with Corbin, it being a city of about 2,500 inhabitants, many of whom are wide-awake business men. On their return, they were accompanied by Master John Hocker Bishop, son of Capt. Bishop and Miss Willie Hocker, of Hartford, Ky., who had been visiting her sister, Mrs. Oscar Bishop since May 10, 1902, and while there became very much attached to many of the young people of Corbin, who spared no pains to make her visit to their city pleasant indeed.

Two Negroes Hold up and Rob Alfred Stewart, Near Taylor Mines.

Sunday afternoon, Alfred Stewart, an honest, hard-working man, was walking on the I. C. railroad track from Renter toward Beaver Dam, and when passing the Taylor Mines switch saw two negroes sitting on the railroad track. Stewart spoke to the negroes and attempted to pass on when the darker of the two took hold of him and the whiter one pulled a gun on him and demanded his watch. Stewart did not see any other way out of it but to shell out, which he did. Stewart had $21.50 in his pocket which he unwillingly turned over to the highwayman. The yellow negro, who appeared to be the most desperate of the two, solemnly warned Stewart that if he informed the officials of being robbed they would attend to him later.

Stewart, upon reaching Beaver Dam, notified the marshal of that town of the holdup, and the marshal notified the sheriff and his deputies. Sheriff, Cal P. Keown, who is making a reputation for apprehending evil doers, at once set about the capture of the robbers. He got on the track of them Sunday night and followed them until morning when he lost track of them. He at once notified the officers of Ohio and adjoining counties of the robbery.

Wednesday morning Sheriff Keown received notice from the marshal of Caneyville that Wilbert Sullenger and Louis Cunningham, two negroes sitting on the I. C. railroad track, were under arrest at that place. Stewart was telephoned immediately and came to Hartford and swore out a warrant of arrest for the robbers. The marshal of Caneyville brought the negroes, Sullenger and Cunningham, here yesterday, they were lodged in jail to await the action of the grand jury at the November term of court.

SUDDEN DEATH

Of W. L. Rowe, a Hotel Keeper at Beaver Dam, Tuesday Night.

The citizens of Beaver Dam were shocked Wednesday by the sudden news of the death of Mr. W. L. Rowe, a popular hotel keeper of that town, at 1 o'clock that morning. Mr. Rowe's was a familiar face to the travelling public who stop off the I. C. road at Beaver Dam. The writer came down from Louisville and shook hands with Mr. Rowe at 2:47 p. m. Tuesday, and he had the appearance of being in the best of health at that time. Mr. Rowe met the 9:50 train Tuesday night and was a corpse at 1 o'clock Wednesday morning.

His death was due to heart failure, and the first symptoms of this approaching death appeared about twenty minutes before his demise.

Mr. Rowe was twice School Commissioner of Ohio county, and several years ago conducted the Hartford House here.

Difficult Digestion

That is Dyspepsia. It makes life miserable. Its sufferers eat not because they want it, but simply because they must. They know they are irritable and fretful; but they cannot be otherwise. They complain of a bad taste in the mouth, a tenderness at the pit of the stomach, an uneasy feeling of puffiness, headache, heartburn and what not. The effectual remedy, proved by permanent cures of thousands of severe cases, is Hood's Sarsaparilla. Hood's Pills are the best cathartic.

A RAILROAD.

After an Agitation of a Third of a Century Hartford will Have a Railroad.

For more than a third of a century the building of a railroad to connect Hartford with the Louisville and Paducah line has been agitated, planned and projected by our people, but at last a tangible railway is in sight.

About a month ago Mr. B. Armitage and son, practical railroad men from Pennsylvania, came to Hartford and undertook to organize a home company to build the road, which now seems to be practically assured.

A meeting was held at the court house Saturday night at which Col. C. M. Barnett was elected chairman and Mr. S. A. Anderson, secretary. At this meeting the already large subscription was augmented by additional stock placing to such an extent that the company proceeded to the election of a Board of Directors.

The following named gentlemen were elected directors:

S. T. Stevens, J. P. Miller, T. L. Griffin, C. M. Taylor, Rowan Holbrook, C. M. Barnett, J. C. Riley, J. S. Glenn and John J. McHenry.

The following citizens evidenced their enterprise and public spirit by subscribing for the number of shares, of $25.00 each, opposite their names:

Glenn & Ringo—20, C. M. Barnett—40, Rowan Holbrook—20, M. L. Heavrin—8, J. C. Riley—40, J. Wayne Griffin & Bro.—20, J. P. Miller—20, C. P. Keown—4, John T. Moore—8, Wood Tinsley—4, Dr. E. W.
